WYOMING CENTER FOR THE BOOK RECEIVES $10,000 TO FUND WYOMING BOOK FESTIVAL

Cheyenne, WY – The Wyoming Center for the Book has been awarded a $10,000 grant from the Flying V Donor Advised Fund of the Wyoming Community Foundation to fund the Wyoming Book Festival, planned for Sept. 14-15, 2007 in Cheyenne.

The Wyoming Book Festival will bring more than 50 authors to downtown Cheyenne for two days of book events on everything from mystery to children's books to gardening. Most of the invited authors either live in Wyoming or write about the state. The list includes top-notch names like C.J. Box, Margaret Coel, Craig Johnson and W. Michael and Kathleen O'Neal Gear.

The Wyoming Book Festival will reach thousands of people, encouraging reading and promoting the state's books and authors. The festival web site is at www.wyomingbookfestival.org.

The Wyoming Center for the Book is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting books, book culture and Wyoming's literary heritage. For more information on the Center and its activities, visit <http://will.state.wy.us/wcb> or contact WCB Coordinator Susan Vittitow at 307-777-5915 or svitti@state.wy.us.

The Wyoming Community Foundation is a charitable organization that builds and preserves funds established by individuals, families, corporations, agencies and private foundations. The Community Foundation uses the earnings from these funds to benefit community needs across the state of Wyoming.
