

Board of CPAs

Mission and philosophy

The mission of the Board of Certified Public Accountants is to regulate the practice of public accounting by CPAs in the public's interest, to qualify applicants to take the Uniform CPA examination and insure the appropriate exam is provided, to issue CPA certificates and permits, and to enforce provisions of CPA Act and Rules and Regulations within a constantly changing environment. By ensuring the highest standards are imposed, the Board assists the public through a means of assuring that services are provided by competent individuals and firms.

Major accomplishments and efficiencies

- Drafted and filed amendments to three (3) chapters of the agency's regulations.
- Acted as liaison with other national representatives to insure statutes and regulations are comparable to national standards.
- Conducted numerous investigations as a result of complaints filed, involved in monitoring national current events in the accounting industry. Held four disciplinary hearings.
- Passed major legislation to become effective July 1, 2005 which significantly changes the manner in which the Board will issue certificates, how firms can practice, and what experience will qualify for certification.
- The CPA Board is the first professional licensing Board in Wyoming to provide an on-line renewal system for CPAs to annually renew their individual and firm licenses.
- Published two informational newsletters.

Strategic plan changes

As a licensing board, the Board of CPAs is not subject to the Strategic Plan requirements.
